I was living on my own
Didn't know my right from wrong
Then you came my way, yeah

When I looked into your eyes
I saw paradise
And I fell in love, love

Together we were having fun
In each other's arms, we felt like one
It was just like a dream

Never really crossed my mind
There would ever come a time
That you'd walk away, yeah

How'd we go wrong?
But tell me, why am I alone?
I never really cared about love
Now love, it don't care about me
Love don't care about me, no, no

Now I'm sitting all alone
I guess you won't be coming home
Oh, it breaks my heart

I don't wanna say goodbye
The thought, it only makes me cry
But what else can I do, oh

How'd we go wrong?
But tell me, why am I alone?
Never really cared about love
No, I never cared about love

I know that it's over
But I can't bring myself to face goodbye, oh
And I never cared about your love
Now love, it don't care about me, no, no, oh

Never really cared about love
Now love, it don't care about me

Oh love, it don't care about me
