Look into a mirror
Tell me what do your eyes really see
Can they see the world around you
Or just reflections of one little thing?

'Cause hearts are breaking and lives are taken
Even the blind can see all the things
That are wrong in the world today, oh, yeah
Even the blind can see what's going on today

Picking up the paper
Look at what the headlines read
They're talking about yesterday
And how it takes effect on you and me

The clock is ticking and everybody's wishing
For just one more day to make a difference
And change what we need to change, yeah

I can see something's wrong out here
Can't you see something's wrong out here?

Stop wasting your time, begin your life
With others in mind
You can change what we need to change

Can't you see? Well, something's wrong out here
Something's wrong, something's wrong out here

And even the blind man sees all the things
That are wrong in the world today
And we got one more day to make a difference
And change what we need to change, oh, yeah
We got one more day to make a change in your life
