No use cryin' now
You'll get by somehow
You thought that you had me
Just where I ought to be.
You thought I was So Much Love with You, yeah
Do what you wanna do
But now you know, I've changed my mind.
You can't send me away
Then ask me to stay
We've never been the same
Since you played your game.
You thought I was So Much in Love with You,
Yeah
Do what you wanna do
But now you know, I've changed my mind.
Did you believe I was a fool
That I never saw through the wool
You pull over my eyes.
I think you better find
Someone who's more your kind
Someone who'll be your clown
Someone who'll push you round
You thought I was So Much in Love with You,
Yeah
Do what you wanna do
But now you know, I've changed my mind
You thought I was So Much in Love with You,
Yeah
Do what you wanna do
But now you know, I've changed my mind
Now you know, I've changed my mind
