Faith for reasons still unknown
Like 'Bleak House Fog' seems everywhere
The truth has faded into stone
And hope lies freezing in the midnight air

Though dark our days may seem
This is a different dream
Their freedom light don't shine at all

So I will light a candle for you
Keep it burning in the night
And pray that you are alright
I will light a candle for you
A little candle, burning bright

When school yard heroes disappear
The little girl, she stands alone
Oh, I believe you if you say
A prayer can help to get her home, yeah

So, I will light a candle for you
And keep it burning in the night
And pray that you are alright
I will light a candle for you
A little candle, burning bright

I will light a candle for you
And keep it burning in the night
Pray that you are alright
I will light a candle for you
A little candle, burning bright

I will light a candle for you
Keep it burning in the night
Pray that you are alright
I will light a candle for you
A little candle, burning bright
