Every second counts
That's what he says
Every second counts
Every single day

All through the night time
And all through the day time
Can't let your world pass through
And in to my way

Every second counts
He can't slow down
Every second counts
See him spin around

He's chasing his shadow
He's racing the wind
He tells us to follow
Where the ice is so thin

I hope you're holding on
I hope you're holding on, yeah
'Cos every second counts

I hope you're holding on
I hope you're holding on
'Cos every, every second counts

Every second counts
Every second counts
Every second counts
