Do ya have a friend who loves you Even in your darkest day Do have a friend who loves you Even when your own loves gone away Do ya have a friend who will wait for you anytime of the day or night well i got this friend name Jesus and he wants to get into your life

When you think of who your best friend is It's someone you can trust Well Jesus is the kinda friend with the kind of love that won't rust Do ya have a friend who loves you even if your not right well i've got this friend names Jesus and he wants to get into your life

Do ya have a friend who's felt every wool that you can feel and that will never be a sickness that this friend's love couldn't heal Do ya have a friend who loves you even when your not sure And there's nothing in all creation this friend's love cannot endure it's a love that knows no limits and each day it seems like more i've got this friend named Jesus pounding on your door Do you have a friend who knows your every need do ya have a friend who's love has already been guaranteed Do have a friend who'll hold your deepest secrets you can't tell Do ya have a friend who loves you enough to take your place in Hell When the world comes crashing down on you the struggle is too much Do ya have a friend who'll get under you and hold you like a crutch When the doubts that can defeat you cut your soul like the shapest knife do ya have a friend who'll feed you not with plain food but with life And when being alive itself is too much of a chore

You've got this friend named Jesus now and ever more

And when being alive itself
is too much of a chore
You've got this friend named Jesus
now and ever more
