Watching and listening and waiting;
Knowing you'll turn out the light.
The spirit they've crushed now is fading,
But I want to help make things right.

Because I can see, and I can feel.
And you can see, and you can feel.
So why don't we both either stand up and fight,
Or at least together, we'll call it a night.
Call it a night.

They'll tell you that you must be stronger.
The prisoners still claim to be free.
I can't live that lie any longer.
His grace is sufficient for me.

I'm not ashamed of the Gospel,
But I've met some people who are.
Claiming their anger is God's will,

Their self-righteousness goes too far.

Because I can see, and I can feel.
And you can see, and you can feel.
So why don't we both either stand up and fight,
Or at least together, we'll call it a night.
Call it a night.

Sit down; I'll tell you a secret:
There's nothing that you can do.
He died; those things were defeated.
Now nothing separates Him from you.

And now I can see, and I can feel.
And you can see, and you can feel.
So why don't we both either stand up and fight,
Or at least together, we'll call it a night.
Call it a night.
