So what now little girl?
Who was it that changed your world?
Hope is a funny thing
When the pain cuts through
But you will see it
You will feel it soon

And I know that you're hurting
Cause so am I
Feel like life is ending
Feels like you want to die
Don't say it's over
Even though it's gone
Your life is just beginning
Your life has just begun

In the heat of the moment
Between you and I
I will wipe away the fears
And tears that you will cry
Faith is a funny thing
When the pain cuts through
But you will see it
And you will feel it soon

And I know that you're hurting
Cause so am I
Feel like life is ending
Feels like you want to die
Don't say it's over
Even though it's gone
Your life is just beginning
Your life has just begun

You were faulted
The life owed to you
But I can see
Better things for you
Don't say it's over
Even though it's gone
Your life is just beginning

Your life has just begun

You're not the only one
Wish I could tell you why
Everything good has to die
