I'm trying, I'm trying to be the man you know I can't be I'm dying, I'm dying to see what's to come Eyes judging and staring at me, my eyes deny their questions

The answers evading the truth of what's to come.
Walking on the line again I pushed away my only friends

Maybe a problem after all

Stop trying to tell me I'm wrong, you're wrong

You know I'm right, right?

Stop pushing, stop pushing me further into night I'm feeling invincible cause you can't stop what I have done

The questions unanswered are answers after all Walking on the line again I pushed away my only
friends

Maybe a problem after all

Bottle me up real tight inside I'm breaking down

Looking for what saves tonight cause you can't see what's inside me

I'm breaking down, I'm breaking down, I'll break it off I'll break it off, I'll tear it down, I'll tear it down, I'll set it off

I'll tear it down I'll set it off

I'll set it off walking on the line again
