i can remember like it was yesterday the way you spoke to me i didn't know what to say palms all sweaty and my heart was beating heavy i must confess i was a mess boy but then i remember you made me feel ok ask for my number and you call me that day back than we were good and now we're even greater and i won't let nothing separate us no no no our names in a heart in the tree in the park don't know where i end, don't know when you start ever since that day they ain't seen us apart for as long as you can boy i want you to

want you to hold me, love me like you never loved before we go together high school (?)
like hollywood and movies
for the way you do me it's incredible
i want you to know me, console me
don't ever ever let me go i'm tryna tell you that i love you like lucy love ricky want you to wrap your arms around me like a picture in a frame
just like a picture in a frame

do you remember that we sat in your car talking bout forever like it wasn't that far now i got your back, you got my back won't get sidetracked and that's how it is and i promised you that i won't give nobody my love for you it doesn't matter who they are they ain't you and no matter what they try to say it ain't true and that's how it is our names in a heart on a tree in the park

want you to keep your arms around me

if you really, if you really really really really love someone let me hear you say say yeah yeah yeah ooh yeah say yeah yeah
i said if you really really really, if you really
let me hear you say yeah say yeah yeah yeah
