Listen

I've been around in it
And seen a lot of things
But long as I've been living,
Ain't been treated this way
Why every time there's a problem
Girl you don't wanna solve
And look at all the mess you take me through
With all the things I'm getting,
Brand new key to the range
The way I got you living
You don't worry bout a thing
I'm about to give up
Baby I've had enough
You gotta make me understand

Why every time we have a problem,
You blame me
I apologize but that don't mean a damn thing
All the hollering, arguing, I'm not with it, I don't get it
I don't wanna be that, I can't figure out
Why every time I pull you in close,
You push me away
And then when I say go,
You say stop just to say it
Girl I don't know how to play it
Only place when we agree
Is when we're tired of disagreeing

Keep saying that you hear me
But you don't ever change
And if you're so unhappy
Girl why won't you pack your things
See I ain't got the time girl this ain't my life
But tell me what's it gonna be girl
Cause it seems like
When I do everything you ask of me
I gotta thank you for the simplest things
And I'm about to give up
Baby I've had enough
You gotta make me understand

Why every time we have a problem,
You blame me
I apologize but that don't mean a damn thing
All the hollering, arguing, I'm not with it, I don't get it
I don't wanna be that, girl I can't figure out
Why every time I pull you in close,
You push me away
And then when I say go,
You say stop just to say it
I don't know how to play it
Only place when we agree
Is when we're tired of disagreeing

Baby I don't understand (I don't understand)
Why you keep trying to force me away
Can you tell me what we're trying for (trying for)
We should walk out the door
(And maybe we shouldn't do this no more)

Why every time we have a problem,
You blame me
I apologize but that don't mean a damn thing
All the hollering, arguing, I'm not with it, I don't get it
I don't wanna be that, girl I can't figure out
Why every time I pull you in close,
You push me away
And then when I say go,
You say stop just to say it
I don't know how to play it baby
Only place when we agree
Is when we're tired of disagreeing
