oh tell me can you fix me, tell me can you fix me

girl lately been feeling crazy trying to find a remedy but it escapes me i can't describe it doctors can't prescribe me nothing that'll make me feel better about the way we fell apart and everybody keeps telling me i'm gone need a brand new heart i want a second opinion from you

they say i'm gone need surgery so you can repair this broken heart i think i'm gone need surgery take out the pain and give me a brand new start to get me right i need a love transfusion on my donor list your name is the first one i need surgery
i know you can repair this broken, broken heart on the outside i don't have no symptoms but on the inside i'm a classic example trying to deal with this is killing me so i guess i'm dying to live with you, can't you see tell me why we fell apart and why you keep on telling me

on my donor list your name is the first one
i know you can repair this broken, broken heart

if i would've caught it in the early stages i would be ok

took a look at my life and made some changes
girl i should of listen when you tried to tell me you opened up your heart and tried to help me but i guess i never thought we'd end like this

so you can repair this broken heart (for me)
i think i'm gone need surgery
(to get me right babe)
to get me right i need a love transfusion
on my donor list your name is the first one i need surgery (yes i do) i know you can repair this broken (fix me up), broken heart

fix me baby, fix me baby fix me baby
oh baby, oh yeah yeah
