Like the first day of school,
Girl I can't wait to have you in my arms so bad...
And you don't know what you're doing to this young dude,
I'm feeling things I never have.

And I owe it all to you,
I think I might have threw that coin in the water, just
about every day
And I know I might be young, but I think that you're the one.
So I make another wish and it's for you to stay!

(Baby if I...)
Baby if I had a dime, a dime for every time I made a wish, I'd be a millionaire.
I stood over that fountain, felt like I climbed a
mountain,
On the day you came out of that wishing well.

Girl I'm ten feet tall, when you're on my arms, they can't tell me a thing
They don't see me, unless you're with me.
Girl we're one and the same.

And I owe it all to you,
I think I might have threw that coin in the water, just
about every day
And I know I might be young, but I think that you're the one.
So I make another wish and it's for you to stay!

(Baby if I...)
Baby if I had a dime, a dime for every time I made a wish, I'd be a millionaire.
I stood over that fountain, felt like I climbed a
mountain,
On the day you came out of that wishing well.

Baby if I had a dime, a dime for every time I made a wish, I'd be a millionaire.
I stood over that fountain, felt like I climbed a

mountain,
On the day you came out of that wishing well.

Oh, I remember the day that I made that wish and it came true with you.

Oh, I remember the day...

And I must be the luckiest man in the world, to have you as my girl.

Baby if I had a dime, a dime for every time I made a wish, I'd be a millionaire.

I stood over that fountain, felt like I climbed a
mountain,

On the day you came out of that wishing well.

Baby if I had a dime, a dime for every time I made a wish, I'd be a millionaire.

I stood over that fountain, felt like I climbed a
mountain,

The day you came out of that wishing well.
