When you get home, clean the dirt from your knees,
And fix those holes in your ripped jeans.

You say It's wrong to, try and make this right,
But you forget this, because you want the same thing.
Tell me what you need then we'll make it.

With this time off I'll give you everything I have, stay
awake tonight!
And give it all to you.

I am the one who makes this place,
The first and last glance off your face.
And the fact to make you feel better,
And the fact to make you feel.

So come on talk to me and I'll take you out, take you out from here.
Cause that's where you belong, that's where you belong tonight.
Tell me what you need then we'll make it.

With this time off I'll give you everything I had, stay
awake tonight!
And give it all to you.
With this time off I'll give you everything I had, stay
awake tonight!
And give it all to you...

With this time off I'll give you everything I had, stay
awake tonight!
And give it all to you.
With this time off I'll give you everything I had, stay
awake tonight!
And give it all to you...
