We felt your agony as you
Bled through sheltered seeds of youth
You never tried to live again
Jeremiah, where have you gone to now.
That cold white room it crucified
The light that once shone from your eyes
Couldn't you have said goodbye
Now all that's left are memories
Faded photographs of these
Times when you were my best friend
Jeremiah, where have you gone to now

Jeremiah
God will uplift you
Dad waits for you on rainy days
Mom cries every night and prays
Jeremiah, where have you gone to now
That cold white room it crucified
The light that once shone from your eyes
Couldn't you have said goodbye
