Tell me one thing something to believe
Something I can write down
And keep it for sake keeps
Please don't tell me something that you wont keep
Something to look back on when all of my trust leaves

My trust for you burns bright
There's nothing left there
And I can't take it

Admit it admit it admit it
And don't you fake it
Your words your words your words
Are what made this
Get up get up get up
And fess up to those lies
It's in your eyes

Uncertainty made it's home in my veins
The pessimist you made in me
The tragedy you can not see

Just for one good reason
You're lying, keep trying

I will tell you I'll walk out the door
Never to return again, you wont see me any more

My trust for you burns bright
There's nothing left there
And I can't take it

Admit it admit it admit it
And don't you fake it
Your words your words your words
Are what made this
Get up get up get up
And fess up to those lies
It's in your eyes

Admit it admit it admit it
And don't you fake it

Your words your words your words
Are what made this
Get up get up get up
And fess up to those lies
It's in your eyes

I hate you for all this
Everything I've become
Smoldering no control

Now I'll take it all back
I'll take it back no
I'll take it back

Admit it admit it admit it
And don't you fake it
Get up get up get up
And fess up to those lies
It's in your eyes

Admit it admit it admit it
Get up get up get up
And fess up to those lies
It's in your eyes

Admit it admit it admit it
Get up get up get up
And fess up to those lies
It's in your eyes

Admit it admit it admit it
And don't you fake it
Your words your words your words
Are what made this
Get up get up get up
And fess up to those lies
It's in your eyes
