In this silence, all the words sound golden from your lips
And I can hear every word
Now if I can't seem to tame myself
I'll let you know
Please, help me so

I'll stay locked alone in the darkness
Lost inside my mind [for some time]
Is this a cry a cry for a savior
I can not tell [but it seems like it]

In the stillness, the world can not stop passing by my eyes as i start to cry
Now if I can't seem to tame myself
I'll let you know
Please, help me so

I'll stay locked alone in the darkness
Lost inside my mind [for some time]
Is this a cry a cry for a savior
I can not tell [but it seems like it]

Tonight my eyes are laid to rest
Blind to the sights surrounding me
Numb is all that I've become
And all I ask is for you to fill this void

I'll stay locked alone in the darkness
Lost inside my mind [for some time]
Is this a cry a cry for a savior
I can not tell [but it seems like it]

I'll stay locked alone in the darkness [I can't believe]
Lost inside my mind for some time [I found myself]
Is this a cry a cry for a savior [Knowing how I am]
I can not tell but it seems like it [Doing all I can]
