Honey hold me tight
Don't lose myself to leave you
As this night
Brutus will curse you

Refrain:
You've tried to win my heart
But daggers slip through your heart
Honey, hold me tight
I will miss you

Chorus:
This Ides of March I will remember
'Cause it's the last time I see you alive
This Ides of March I will remember

Soon I'll see you
But not now
'Cause there's someone holding me now
Goodbye to you my love

This night mark the end of your empire
History swiftly moves our romance
All roads lead to Rome
As this night
Brutus will curse you

(Refrain)
(Chorus)
