Your love ; is written on the wind
It moves me deep within
Rising like the tide ; it cannot be denied
When i can't see ; i'll still believe

Your love ; time and time again
Help me take a stand
When life's hard to fight? see me through the night
I'll carry on ; because you're strong

Bridge:
And when the rains fall down
And when the dark surrounds me
How can i be sustained
When my world falls apart
You mend my broken heart
I know your love will still remain
I know you care i feel you there

And when the rains fall down
And when the dark surrounds me
How can i be sustained
When my world falls apart
You mend my broken heart
I know your love will still remain
I'll never fear while you are here

Your love ; gently reaches in
And heals me once again
Knows what i've been through
Your love has made me new
When i can't see i still believe
