

Lost Ocean "You Are"

I've been worried about you. Maybe I hide it all too well.
You are somewhere else, you are. Something's troubling you. It's not difficult to see. You were someone else, you were. You were strong a while, you learned to fake a smile. You run somewhere else, you run far enough to shout.

One chose to stay, the other flew away. One chose to stray, the promises they made. Hold on, just hold on.
You can make it, but you just can't make it (on your own).

I've been learning about you. I've been figuring you out.
You are someone else, you are. Stop light you'll never make it, stop right before you break it. You run somewhere else, you run far enough to shout.

CHORUS

We will try to hide. We'll never make it on our own.
