"Pity The Sadness"

Sadness lives after we die

The pains of life increased outright

Contempt and sins priorities...

To crush good fortune [to its knees]

Morning...

Morning's calm, inside I cry

This painful live has raped my mind

Take me down, slow release

From sorrow's penetration

Morning...

Life is there for me

Hell is there for me

Sunlight greets my open wounds

Morning's light reflects the doom

My soul is free, it lives again

To roam alone in darkness

Morning...

I've cried for god

And I've cried for you

I pray that in the end your sense will break though

Sadness lives after we die

The pains of life increased outright

Contest my sins priorities

Crushed my spirit to its knees
