So quiet now, I hear your breathing on the other side of the line.

Gotta make it alright, but we got no things to say right know.

I try to make it alright, somehow to change your mind.

We hang up the phone, you left me alone this time.

Just want you to call, knock on my door, dont let it go.
Just want you to call, knock on my door, dont let it go.

So quiet now, I could listen to your breath all night. Just want you here,

right in my arms - but how?

Would never leave you the way you wanna leave me know. Please dont hang up the phone, cause i want you around somehow.

Just want you to call, knock on my door, dont let it go.
Just want you to call, knock on my door, dont let it go.
Just want you to call, knock on my door, dont let it go.

Just want you to call, and knock on my door, dont let it go.

Just want you to call, knock on my door, dont let it go.
Just want you to call, knock on my door, dont let it go.
