Somebody told me that I always have to bow if that was true I would have fallen apart by now The more u think, the less u act their ways so can u hear this, the fake sound of progress

Never reason with a fool, but is that unkind, looks like I lost my mind once again I know it all sounds so contrived, but its got to me u know I've got to be more than this don't frown, don't scorn, cus I walk a different street to u u look so worn, i bet that life is has got you blown but it will never get to me

and I feel the way u hold, hold me back from this chances that I've missed, now their gone apathy is all I sense, the feelings too intense sitting on a fence and cant decide don't frown, don't scorn, cus I walk a different street to

All these words that I accounted for, never fear another day always charged but I need more, make me take away tell me now, can u hear the sound of all these people falling down growing back into the ground, make me smile again

Tell me now can u hear the sound, of the record spinning round and round, for on and on it sounds like the same old song that I keep singing, it sounds like dadadadadadadada (yeah yeah it sounds like that yeah) dadadadadadadada (all these words
