Tonight, I felt stonger
Inside of your ways
It takes a lot to get home
But it's okay when the light is always on

I just want you to understand
Theres no need to keep waiting
Another day in another hand
It could be so different

A letter to me, you're wasting time
You know you could be, yeah you could shine
But tonight you'll get it right
You will make a difference

Tonight, tonight, tonight
I feel stronger
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
And I could see through even so far away
It's all you need to make it through another day

Surprise, scream your heart out
In time you will have doubt
Today it all seems too strong
If only you tried you would move on

I just want you to understand
There's no need to keep waiting
Another day in another hand
It could be so different

A letter to me, you're wasting time
You know you could be, yeah you could shine
But tonight you'll get it right
You will make a difference

Tonight, tonight, tonight
I feel stronger
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
And I could see through even so far away
It's all you need to make it through another day

Tonight, tonight, tonight
I feel stronger
Tonight, tonight, tonight
I feel stronger

Tonight, tonight, tonight
I feel stronger
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
And I could see through even so far away
It's all you need to make it through another day
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
