If it wasn't for hate, we'd be dead by now.
If it wasn't for truth, we'd have taken out bow.
If it wasn't for love. we'd have faded away.
If it wasn't for hate, baby, I'd have lost out today.

It won't kill me, you can't stop me
It won't kill me, you can't stop me
It won't kill me, you can't stop me
It won't kill me, you can't stop me

If it wasn't for death, I know I'd never feel this alive.
If it wasn't for lies, I probably wouldn't survive.
If I wasn't for damn hypocrisy, I wouldn't have to sing
this song.
If it wasn't for patience baby, I couldn't wait out this long.

I'm killing everything you know
I'm killing everything you know
I'm killing everything you know
I'm killing everything you know
