"Like A Fire"

It seems, to me
I've never seen today
I know the enemy is watching
So why don't you go
Always try to keep me so
I'm feeling is so cold
It seems, the water, never swim to deep

[chorus:]
Yes, it hurts, giving up like a fire (x2)

(Doused)

Between, today
I know it's not too late
Some trouble in your sleep
No yeah but, so why don't you go
Another life to keep
This heat today

Yes, it hurts, giving up like a fire (x2)

(Doused)

Never go, never go, never go...

Yes, it hurts, giving up like a fire (x2)

(Doused)

Hmm...Don't cry
