So you say, that I say
That everythings ok
But if you look the other way
You'd see that life is leaving
And you say, that I say
You're tearing it apart
But it was never meant to start
No answers to my questions
If there's a way
That you can be, everything you want to be
But you complain that it came to you too easily
Your broken dreams
They could have been Everything you wanted to be, everything you want from me
Your broken dreams
You never say
Everything you wanted to see, everything you want to be
So you say, that we play
A different kind of game
But then how would you explain
Your constant lack of motion
It's time to become you
Pick up and start again
Make up a plan my friend
Or you will end up fading
If there's a way
That you can be, everything you want to be
Your broken dreams
They could have been
Everything you wanted to be, everything you want from
me
Your broken dreams
You never say
Everything you wanted to see, everything you want to
To be, to be, to be, to be
Your broken dreams
They could have been
Everything you wanted to be, everything you want from

me

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
