When all serene was fading a theatrical performance went up before my eyes a performance where the actors were slaved under the deicetful God

The land forlorn that never will see light again it sombre slept behind th eseal the act kept spinning round its wheel the sight was getting misty as tears filled my eyes my mind was filled with thoughts about the people and about their raging sky sounds of misery echoed in my head never again I will feel such a sympathy that i felt that moment so follow down this dreadful dream

The confidence that once was built is now falling to pieces a confidence that was built by dreams forever buried in desperation

My soul was filled with despair, my eyes filled with tears as I tried to gatehr the last of my strength to seek in the depth of the unknown

The curtain goes up and the last act begins still so sombre but somehow darker a goblet filled with blood of thousands approaches above their heards the voice of darkness starts to grind in my head "Purify your damned souls, drink of the unholy communion swear the allegiance and you'll never catch a glimpse of sunlight again"

The frost that lays on the land where life no longer dwells is a memory of the one that showed that life don't have a meaning
