"Forever And Ever Alone"

Visit "Forever And Ever Alone" on MotoLyrics.com

I walk lightly over the earth I see I still keep trying to feel nothing is left, time to die out again once you were here but now your gone my friend nothing is like I once saw the horizon so lonely and so cold so lonely and so alone

I absorb what I'll no longer know this is not what I expected to feel the time has taken my life away what I love has been ripped away from me Ages have past since you coloured my light I'll never again see shining eyes so bright forever and ever I'll be a forgotten name in your mind without you my dear is my existence not worth calling life

Nothing can be as it was my friend everything withers and grows up again forever you're gone my friend here all alone to the unknown send
