"She Moved Through The Fair"

My love said to me 'My mother won't mind and my father won't slight you for your lack of kind' Then she stepped away from me and this she did say
'It will not be long love, 'til our wedding day'

She stepped away from me and she moved through the fair and fondly I watched her move here and move there She went her way homewards with one star awake as the swans in the evening move over the lake

The people were saying ... no two e'er were wed but one has a sorrow that never was said And she smiled as she passed me with her goods and her gear and that was the last that I saw of my dear

I dreamt it last night - that my true love came in So softly she entered her feet made no din
She came close beside me and this she did say
'It will not be long love, 'til our wedding day'
