Foolish eyes watch me now the steel comes in like thunder with deep wounds I down bow time to go without questions, without wonder my trembling body turns silent, turns cold time to join the land down under when drizzle turns to rain when tears from a crying eye slowly turn to oceans when living is in vain when bleeding hearts comes out in words and emotions

Utopian feelings for a stronger imagination Supernatural mind and soul the deal gives me anger the silent wheel starts to roll human race another failure watch out for the misfit factors wherever you go protect your mind, body and soul

Sleepers used for the higher powers failing against supernatural man lurking slowly, heavens towers life runs out in the sand
