Everything around me is a negative surrounding Inside I'm drowning, away from the land
Everybody's speaking but I'm not receiving the message you're portraying into my head

I put the razor to my life
Hoping I can see the light
My heart beats inside (killing me)

See in my head

See things red
Never, again

The ocean of tranquillity
Flowing like a sinner's dream
I throw myself into the stream
It's all in my head
Take a piece of me tonight
Would anybody realise
How empty I would feel inside
I feel sick
