You need a gentleman?
Gentleman

I am the type of guy
That picks you up in a Benz
I am the type of man
That will always represent
I am the type of freak
That calls you seven days a week
You don't believe it but
You gotta understand

You wouldn't call me gentleman
If you only knew my plan
You wouldn't take the chance
To dance with dynamite
Are you ready to explode with me tonight?
I'm a gentleman

I send you flowers
What's yours is ours
I wanna tell ya that I care
You think I'm gentle
So sentimental
You don't believe it but you gotta understand

You wouldn't call me gentleman
If you only knew my plan
You wouldn't take the chance
To dance with dynamite
Are you ready to explode with me tonight?

I'm your man
Yes I am
I'm your man
Yes I am

I send you e mails
With nasty details
I wanna tell ya, that I care
You think I'm gentle
So sentimental

You don't believe it but you've gotta understand
I'm a gentleman

You wouldn't call me gentleman
If you only knew my plan
You wouldn't take the chance
To dance with dynamite
Are you ready to explode with me tonight?

Ladies
Fasten your seat belts
Switch on your electronic devices
And pump up the volume

Let me know if we could flow like a river
It's my quest baby
To warm you up when you shiver
I'm extra gentle
Super duper sentimental
I'm the man that understands

You wouldn't, you wouldn't
You wouldn't call me gentleman
If you only knew my plan
To dance with dynamite
Are you ready to explode with me tonight?

I'm your man
Yes I am
I'm your man
Gentleman

You wouldn't, you wouldn't
You wouldn't call me gentleman
If you only knew my plan
To dance with dynamite
Are you ready to explode with me tonight?

You need a gentleman
You wouldn't wanna call me gentleman
