Stars go down in the western sky. Light fades
in as the darkness dies.
Sunlight, sweet sunlight brings a day that You've created. Perfect remedy for all that tears at me.

Chorus:

Arise! Arise with the morning.
Arise! Your mercies are new.
Arise! Arise with the morning that finds me running back to You.

Darkness comes and
covers all my faults.
Tears fall down and sting
my wounds like salt.
Hopes fade 'til I'm caught in the day that You've created.
Perfect remedy
for all that tears at me.

(Chorus)

I'm anxiously waiting.
Redemption is brimming with stories created.
Each new day I know
You are coming.

(Chorus)

I'm running back to you.
