We all see the mystery that plays out in our heads We dream that we're the hero, not just who we are instead Every step and every sight, a clue not what it seems But every clue we're chasing down is all part of this dream

We are all the same, we are all the same
We are all the same, we're chasing down a name

We all need a family, we're never satisfied With what we have we're chasing down a dream that never died
Good but never good enough, we're dark down to our soul Lives spent flashing all we have but we never fill the hole

We are all the same, we are all the same
We are all the same, we're chasing down a name

All we are is a prodigal, a life well spent is never full We change our name, we're all the same Love is what we've heard before but we all play the game
All we are is a prodigal, yeah

Fallen, we are fallen but forgiven even more The letter on our chest reminds us we are still the whore
We're runaways, we're done ways, we are the cast aside
But now our name is caught up, in our Christ we are the bride

We are all the same, we are all the same
We are all the same, we're chasing down a name
Yeah, we are all the same, we are all the same
We are all the same, we're chasing down a name

We're chasing down a name

We're chasing down a name
