Tell Cath and Celie that the breaking point was found
The shit came down
One too many times
To get up from the ground

Go admitting freely
That the real world intercedes
Fills it's needs
Beautyless and summed
Point by point, one by one

But oh, Cindy Lee
Don't say you don't love me
Oh, Cindy Lee
Never say you don't love me

Say that you don't think
It was ever in our hands
And the firmest stands last a while
Then find higher ground, other plans

But oh, Cindy Lee
Never say you don't love me
'Cause maybe even you jump
At a chance you see
At a chance you see
Don't you know they got you
Too easily, too easily
Even you
So easily

Oh, Cindy Lee
Don't say you don't love me
Oh, Cindy Lee
Never say you don't love me
