Know that it begins
In world of mystery
In worlds of terrors and perditions
And that is comes among pale visions
Of the precipice where are larvae
And crimes
Where the creation scaring abysses
Prolongs itself in a shadow
In a ghost
The evil, through the flesh
Enslaves you
Disgorges a huge steam
Who lives

I have before my eyes
The dreadful darkness
The chasm is here
Dismal and vast

I feel alone in the endless silence
To cross this deep gulf
Without edge
An angel shows me the crypts
Where God or the beast
Awaits me

Visions of the end
Show us your fate

There are sinks
In floods of disaster
The hydra Universe
Twisting its body
There are all floats
And goes away in a dark wreck
In this abyss without edge
Without wall
And we see in the depth
When the eye dares go down in
Beyond life, blast and noise
A frightful dark sun

From which come
Radiations of the night

I have before my eyes
The dreadful darkness The chasm is here
Dismal and vast

I feel alone in the endless silence
To cross this deep gulf
Without edge
An angel shows me the crypts
Where God or the beast
Awaits me

Visions of the end
Shows us your fate

I feel alone in the endless silence
Without edge
Awaits me

Visions of the end
