Birthing a nation, we just can't fail
Out of the entrance so lost and so frail
If I wasn't with you we'd all fall down
A capital horror
Estrogen oxygen aches in the teeth again
This is your instrument this is attack this is the spine
That was laid in your back
If I wasn't with you I'd just fall down

A capital horror
Falling for you love was not the biggest mistake that I made
It was all just an introduction to the violent mess that we'd lay
We're so young and precious devoured
Lost be the lost and the angels retired all the Damage that's in me now we'll watch it burn
