I never talk to guardian angels, never look at evil past
The dying swan of sad creation, going fast away
We are born again like a phoenix passing
Vanish like a soldier's death
Hear the breath of moving thunder
Red hot blow the ashes to the sky...

Shadows of war, screaming past lies
Shadows of war, emotional ties

It comes, a deeper nightmare
Fly me away to the holy place
Can the keepers guide forever
Will they make us pay?
We are born again like a phoenix passing
Vanish like a soldier's death
Hear the breath of moving thunder
Red hot blow the ashes to the sky...

Shadows of war, love has gone blind
Shadows of war, time out of mind

Can the keepers guide forever?
Will they make us pay?
We are born again like a phoenix passing
Vanish like a soldier's death
Hear the breath of moving thunder
Red hot blow the ashes to the sky...

Shadows of war, time out of mind
Shadows of war, love has gone blind
Shadows of war, screaming past lies
Shadows of war, emotional ties

Time out of mind
