Talk tough, hard way
Head full of homicide
Force fight, blow out
He won't let you decide

Shoot out, knock down
Beat up and bottle-smashed
Come round, look down
And lying in the trash

The skies are looming darker in his mind
As nightfall comes he moves into the skyline
See the madness in his wild eyes tonight
Terror in the night

Face to face, with the law
Face to face, hatred grows
Place to place, against the light
Face to face

Breaking, smashing
He will assume his role
He is a kill machine
Way out of control

Dying voices
Cry out for life in vain
Used up human souls
Go down in flames

This man upon whom the Sun has gone down
Plays his deadly game in every little town
The turning wheels of life with all their might Praying to the night

Face to face, with the law
Face to face, hatred grows
Place to place, against the light
Face to face

Come on and cruise tonight

The streets are calling
Don't ever quit the fight
No sense is stalling
Let loose and feel the might
He's going to see through you

The skies are looming darker in his mind
As nightfall comes he moves into the skyline
See the madness in his wild eyes tonight
Terror in the night

Face to face, with the law
Face to face, hatred grows
Place to place, against the light
Place to place, endless fight
