You cry, darkness listens
You hide, sudden sorrow fights at you
Break on through

When fever builds inside you
Your body shivers hot and cold at night
Hold on tight

You know the power's out
You can't leave
Now that your heart is pounding energy

Shattered, afraid to show it
Don't let the crazy madness pull you in Fight to win

Looks like your life is crashing
You're on the razor's edge
It's hard to know, don't let go

The night is blowing cold
You can't leave
Twisted by silence and the agony

Lines are down everywhere
Something's under the stair
Ooh yeah, ooh yeah
Lines are down
The razor's edge
Cry for me

You cry, darkness listens
You hide, sudden sorrow fights at you
Break on through

Lights out, someone's watching
Looking for the images to cut and run
Load your gun

One shot, squeeze the trigger
Make them leave

Left in the night, the only enemy

Lines are down everywhere
Something's under the stair
