Here is another song and see
That I play piano is my key
If I was playing my guitar
I will probably be in G the chances are Here is another song in C
With my favorite protagonist me
Of my little world talent show
I sing all about it
So you will know
When people in it break my heart
Then my little world came fall apart
And there is not a thing I can do
Except to sing in C to you
Used to be a family
Brother sister father mother and me
We were living in a little home
We were defeating from the great unknown
But the great unknown got inside
What happened oh he did divide
In the end father had to leave
When he did the mother had to grief
That is the time when real troubles start
Is when a world can fall apart
And there is not a thing I can do
Except to sing in C to you
I pull up and had a family
And it broke apart so easily
All that started thrity years ago
Why is never ending I donâ€™t know
I could blame on the great unknown
Or as a kid I was tall and .
But I blame myself and I blame her
The cruel foolish people that we are
And the children that we had are grown
They are defeating of the great unknown
And I have noticed they are a little bit like me
With a tendency to sing in C So by now is clear to hear and . I donâ€™t play a lot of piano
But sometimes a fellow has to sit just to sing about the heavy shit
The great unknowns are hurricane with . you might make it through but you don't know Right behind it there is a turning on . families didn't break apart

I suppose they don't need n art
But you and I know they do
So I sing in C to you
