[Carmen:]

This is Carmen Cavellero. Now Louis and the boys dish up something which probably won't take up as much time as the title which is - and boy this is really a title - quote: "My feet are killing me marching in the Infantry Blues" unquote...

[Louis:]

I got those "gee my feet are killin' me, since I'm in the infantry" blues
I got those "gee my feet are killin' me, since I'm in the infantry" blues
I walked so doggone much, I can't get my poor feet out of my shoes

I got those "roll two blankets in my pack, don't know when I'm comin' back" blues
I got those "roll two blankets in my pack, don't know when I'm comin' back" blues
The blankets ain't so tough, but what gets me is that extra pair shoes

I gotta hike ev'ry mornin'
Hike ev'ry night
Come back on the weekend
Go out and see the sights
Yes yes
But I can't help it I guess
I gotta take it like a soldier
'Cause I got those infantry blues
