(let's go back)
(let's go back) right back

Just been thinking, reminiscing
Thinking about the love that
We used to know
But that was just so long ago
I got memories
I've been thinking about you baby
The days that we were turning
Each other round
When the lights went down
I don't know why I pushed you baby
Friends told me I was going crazy
I didn't realise boy what I had in you
I gotta change you but I don't know how
I only wish that you could hear me now
I'm gonna run until I run right back to you

Cause baby just yesterday
I thought I saw you
I called your name
But, it just wasn't you
When we lose
Why's it hurt so bad

Let's go back
Let's go back to love 'cause
It's bigger than the both of us
(so let's not give it up)
Let's go back
Let's go back to love so
If you can't get enough
Let's go right back into love

Remember when we could talk for hours
And take me through the summer of yesterday
Oh, funny how since they ain't been the same
I can't take another breath 'til
I'm down with you baby
This is, that's what I gotta do

Can't you miss me too

Cause baby just yesterday
I thought I saw you
I called your name
But, it just wasn't you
When we lose
Why's it hurt so bad

Let's go back
Let's go back to love 'cause
It's bigger than the both of us
(so let's not give it up)
Let's go back

Thought I was getting though all the pain
But you came crashing back in my mind
To hurt me one more time

Let's go back
(so let's not give it up)
Let's go back

Why can't we go
Back to the start
Can't believe it baby that
I broke your heart
No matter why
They gotta say
We can make it better
If we run away
Now that you're gone
What can I do
Can't you see that baby's
Still in love with you

Can we go back,
Can we go back to love
Can we go back,
Can we go back to love
Can we go back,

(right back to love)
