I've heard it on my case
They won't say it to my face
There's still discussions over me
I'm telling you they're lying
But what's the point in trying
There's still discussions over me

What's the use of lying
Ain't got time to keep denying
But they're still discussing me
Will they ever set me free
They're telling stories
But in lies there is no glory
Doesn't matter how they speak
'cause the truth is what I speak

Oh no, don't go
Do you hear everything I'm saying
I'm telling you lies
No life, ain't mine
'cause they prey to get a rating
Forgetting these feelings of mine

I've heard it on my case
They won't say it to my face
There's still discussions over me
I'm telling you they're lying
But what's the point in trying
There's still discussions over me

We read the papers
They ain't doing me no favours
But it's fools that believe
Everything that they read
So disappointing
Is my life that interesting
I cannot understand
Why my life is in demand

I know that you know
That I think this scene's a circus

They're still telling lies
I try so hard
But I still believe they hurt us
No conscience is on their mind

I've heard it on my case
They won't say it to my face
There's still discussions over me
I'm telling you they're lying
But what's the point in trying
There's still discussions over me

(discussions, discussions)
Oh, no, no, no
(discussions, discussions)
Don't you care what you're doing
Doesn't matter who you're using

I don't understand
Why, why, why, why

I've heard it on my case
They won't say it to my face
There's still discussions over me
I'm telling you they're lying
But what's the point in trying
There's still discussions over me

I've heard it on my case
They won't say it to my face
There's still discussions over me
I'm telling you they're lying
But what's the point in trying
There's still discussions over me

I've heard it on my case
They won't say it to my face
There's still discussions over me
I'm telling you they're lying
But what's the point in trying
There's still discussions over me

Discussions discussions,
Discussions, discussions
Over me, over me
Over me, over me
Discussions discussions,
Discussions, discussions
Over me, over me
Over me, over me
