I gave you my loving, I gave you my love
I gave you my loving, I gave you my love

It's funny to me, that I never ever
Thought that we'd end up together
But then we did, it happened quick
It's also funny, that you promised me
Our love would last forever
I was sure, you were my love

Until you started coming home,
With make-up on your tie
It surely wasn't mine

I gave you my love
I was taking it for granted that
I would come come back to me
(I gave you my love)
I gave you my love
And it sure ain't good that now
I don't believe
(I gave you my..)

It's funny to me,
That you never seem to be there
When I need you
Do I read you

I'm telling you I'm so confused
The thought entered my mind
Am I being used?

I gave you my love
I was taking it for granted that
I would come come back to me
(I gave you my love)
I gave you my love
And it sure ain't good that now
I don't believe
(I gave you my..)

I gave you my loving, I gave you my love
I gave you my loving, I gave you my love
I gave you my loving, I gave you my love

I'm telling you I'm so confused
The thought entered my mind
Am I being used?

I gave you my love
I was taking it for granted that
I would come come back to me
(I gave you my love)
I gave you my love
And it sure ain't good that now
I don't believe
(I gave you my..)
