Once there were stars out in the night
They never seemed to shine
And love was there for every heart
Seemed every heart but mine

That's how it seem'd to be
Then darling you changed everything
Just when I thought I'd given up
Out walked loneliness

In walked love
In walked you
In walked all my dreams coming true
Right through my door
I saw your face and I knew
All I'd looked for I had found in you
I found the one that I'd been dreaming of
In walked love

I threw my heart into the wind
I'd thrown all hope away
That love would never let me in
And then you came away
Just like a ray of light
That breaks through the long cold night
You brought in a brand new morning sun
Out walked loneliness

In walked love
In walked you
In walked all my dreams coming true
Right through my door
I saw your face and I knew
All I'd looked for I had found in you
I found the one that I'd been dreaming of
In walked love

Out walked loneliness

In walked love
In walked you

In walked all my dreams coming true
Right through my door
I saw your face and I knew
All I'd looked for I had found in you
I found the one that I'd been dreaming of
In walked love

In walked love
In walked you
In walked all my dreams coming true
Right through my door
