

Louise "Woman In Me"

Visit "Woman In Me" on MotoLyrics.com

Ooh-ooh
Ooh Yeah!

More than money
More than anything I need
Oh no
More than silver rengles
Into every room my dreams, you go

Don't be hard on yourself
The way you love me like nobody else
And that's enough!

That's enough!

Could have been moon light
Could have been music
Could have been the summer night
Could be a news van
Could have been a crazy love on a Paris street
You're all that I need
You touched the woman in me!

You touched the woman in me

There were moments
When I never thought I feel the same
Standing motionless in time
I was watching all my dreams come on down

I was down on myself
Until you love me like nobody else
And that's enough!

That's enough!

Could have been moon light
Could have been music
Could have been the summer night
Could be a news van
Could have been a crazy love on a Paris street
You're all that I need

You touched the woman in me!

Uh-huh, yeah!

You touched the woman in me!

Could have been stronger

Could have been taller

Could have been a sweet smooth talker

Could have knocked me off my feet with a beautiful smile!

I've been unaware my whole life

Now everything feels right

You touched me deep inside

There's nothing left to hide.

Could have been moon light

Could have been music

Could have been the summer night

Could be a news van

Could have been a crazy love on a Paris street

You're all that I need

You touched the woman in me!

Moonlight,

Music,

Ooh-oooh yeah.

Summer night,

News van,

You touched the woman in me!

Crazy love,

Paris street,

Uh-huh.

Moonlight,

Music,

You touched the woman in me!

[Repeat to Fade]

Visit Louise page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.