I can still see your face when you're walking out I remember you that way I keep tellin lies to satisfy the insane idea that maybe I should try to make you stay you like slammin doors, and screaming in the rain you like breathing down my neck, extinguishing my flame i wanna shake your shadow, i wanna tell it to quit but when the devils start talkin, you know there's no forgetting it and I don't know what it is, I can't resist is it a habit that I miss?

just bone and breath, thats all it is now spirit and flesh, my soul unprotected human at best, and it feels like I'm

Balancing blind
by the skin of my teeth I'm high off the ground trying to stand on my own two feet by without you do I feel incomplete I'm balancing blind like a blind man's bluff just bone and breath

i can still hear the sound of your words telling me i have to let you go then you chat me up, try to win my trust until I've had enough of your own divine one sided after glow and i don't know why I need to still believe that I should suffer your conceit

just bone and breath, that's all it is now spirit and flesh, it feels like I'm

by without you do I feel incomplete
just bone and breath

how can we continue to be living in this waste of precious time how can you tell me that it was all a wicked lie maybe I'm mistaken I don't know but if anything we ever said was true if there's this side of you

just bone and breath, that's all it is now

just bone and breath
