Mondays child was fairer face
Tuesday, well, he fell from grace
He went under, I wonder did he see me

When he finally hit the brake
He turned the wheel so bravely
Was his aim to save me

Now it's only water under the bridge
Separating you from me
You might have been from what will be
Only water, only water
(Why didn't I self dive, die, I want to)
Dive, die with you

Wednesday's child was full of words
Thursday's child has far too gone
Perfect frozen, stolen moment
A passing glance, a lifetime chance

Now it's only water under the bridge
Separating you from me
You might have been from what will be
Only water, only water
(Why didn't I self dive, die, I want to)
Dive, die with you

Now it's only water under the bridge
Separating you from me
You might have been from what will be
Only water, only water
(Why didn't I self dive, die, I want to)
Dive, die with you
